

THOMAS NAST CARTOON COLLECTION

Seventeen original cartoon drawings, 18 rough sketches (originals), 2 samples of lettering (originals), 41 dummies and proofs of cartoons, Civil War engravings, numerous drawings, 71 cartoons clipped from papers and magazines, 3 photographs of his paintings, 2 portrait etchings, one etching and one engraved self portrait, 4 photographs of Th. Nast, 3 newspaper articles on Nast, 3 family Christmas Cards & an invitation (all of Th. Nast's drawings), one oversize poster announcing a Th. Nast Lecture, from a sketch of Nast's. Total 160 items.

- I. The original cartoons: Misrule has reigned long enough.✓
1896. A Misunderstanding not entirely misunderstood,
The big Four (2) 1895, Alexander the Good (McGill's)✓
Acceptance. 1895. If the old gang gets in...1895,
Jersey Justice in danger, 1895.✓ Jersey Justice is safe, 1895. Blaine and Gen'l Butler, Blaine as the plumed Knight, 1884. Also Reptiles (copperheads) hated North and South, 1892; Fashion Plate 2 (BF 7408).
- II. The original sketches: two nearly complete are Race track scene or background, Compromise with the South.
~~Added~~ Sepie wash drawing: The colored Volunteer
15 x 12½ mounted, E 7146.
- III. The 41 proofs are dated from 1863 to 1892 and include cartoons, Christmas drawings, Civil War drawings done for Harper's Weekly, numerous drawings.
- IV. The clippings are from the following periodicals:
37 cartoons Harper's Weekly
5 " Time
7 " Evening Post, N. Y. 1888
7 " Daily Examiner, San Francisco 1889
3 " Inter-Ocean, Chicago 1892-93
3 " Once a Week, N. Y. 1890-91
2 " Daily Graphic, N. Y. 1888
One a piece in Illustrated Chicago News, 1867, The Cartoon in 1888, Morris County Chronicle in 1895, N. Y. Voice in 1898.

The 3 Newspaper articles about Nast are in the following:
The Press, May 11, 1890
North American, Oct. 27, 1901
La Nacion, Aug. 27, 1902.

Filed as a collection in Room B; separated into folders by whether original drawings, proofs, or clippings, photographs or etchings.